The Arnside Educational Institute (known as "the EI") is a registered charity run by BY people in the village FOR people in the village (and nearby). A full programme of events run by member groups and others provides a wide range of activities. Private bookings and new groups are welcome to use the the EI. Please contact Kay Farrell for details.

Since the AGM held in January 2009 Ken Hargreaves has retired from the chairmanship after seven years in this position but is remaining on the Executive Council. During this period many improvements have been carried out and his hard work is much appreciated.
